Mercury in Slow Climb, Heavy Rain

by The Associated Press
General rains last night and early today started temperatures on a slow climb, ending a cold wave that covered Arkansas with sub-freezing mercury readings for the past four days.

Last night, freezing rain fell in the northern section of the state, halting bus travel because of icy highways. However, two major carriers reported that runs into the northwest and northern portions of the state would be resumed early today.

Arkansas State Police said that ice still clung to highways in the Fort Smith, Harrison and Clarksville areas. However, police said that warmer weather today probably would clear up the roads.

Continental and Missouri Pacific bus lines cancelled runs to Harrison last night but both companies said service was resumed early today.

Greyhound said, however, that it did not send out its early morning bus from Little Rock to Fort Smith.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock said sleet fell in many areas of the north, sticking to trees and roads. No snow was reported.

Heaviest rain in the state for the 24-hour period ending at 6:30 a. m. today was 1.03 inches at Augusta.

Other heavy rainfalls included: Bluff City, .93 of an inch; Nashville, .80; Jessville, .83; Dardanelle, .78; and Hope, .75. Many other cities received a half inch or less, the bureau said.

Washington Is a Puzzle But Perhaps That's Because the People There Are Puzzling

By HAL BOYLE
WASHINGTON (AP) — What in the world is Washington, D. C.?

Most great cities of earth you can peek like an orange and get at the heart and pulp of them.

They give even the most casual visitor a definite feeling. New York is a tower. Paris is a beating pulse, and the eyes of a new love telling old lies.

Naples is a song in the night and bread crumbs on a tablecloth.

London is stolid courage in a fob. Shanghai is mystery and poverty that smiles at its own misery. Calcutta is a naked beggar pleading for alms beneath the shade of a Vetoian monument.

Berlin is a question mark, saluting itself. Bombay is a tired mongoose fighting a bored cobra, while each waits for the Point Four program to give it a better way of life.

Athens is a blue sky and antique stones and wine with a resin taste, just as it tasted when Socrates drank it long ago.

Yes, most great cities are a definite feeling. But what in the world is Washington, D. C.?

Man Planned to Kill 7 Court Judges

WARREN, Pa. (UP) — An electrician who pumped two fatal bullets into a judge during a court session and then shot himself may have planned to kill seven Superior Court judges, it was revealed today.

A suspected "revenge list" was investigated as the slayer, Norman Moon, 26, lay critically wounded with a self-inflicted bullet wound in the neck.

He turned his .45 caliber pistol on himself at the end of a 10-mile chase by state police yesterday after he shot Judge Allison D. Wade, 51, in the latter's courtroom and fled.

Deputy Superior Court Prothonotary Helen Steel said in Pittsburgh that Moon came to her Jan. 4 and demanded the names and addresses of seven Superior Court judges who refused his appeals from a wife support payment order issued by Judge Wade.

The judge ordered Moon, in 1952, to pay his estranged wife, Janet, $30 a week for support on grounds he had deserted her.

Judge Wade prepared to sentence Moon for failure to observe the order when the shooting occurred.

ton was able to sleep better here than he was at Valley Forge. But what else?

I have come here many times, but all I get from it is a feeling of puzzlement. To me it is a vast jigsaw puzzle made up of thousands of sights and impressions, but I have never been able to fit them into a pattern, and I am beginning to doubt if there is a permanent one. This is a political city, and the only permanent thing in American politics is the next election.

Every once in a while I have a feeling I'd like to go out to the Lincoln Memorial and ask, "Mr. Lincoln, tell me about this place."

But I'm afraid the only answer would be a sigh. After all, they shot Lincoln here.

What in the world is Washington, D. C.?

Well, it isn't America any more than New York is. It is a mass of officials kneeling with their ear to the ground, and each one whispering nervously to his neighbor, "What are the grass roots saying?"

It is a place where most people come to from some other place, and they all call home.

Okays Trading of Non-War Goods With Russia

By FRANK O'BRIEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Weeks says "it has been, and still is" this government's policy to permit trade in non-strategic goods with Russia and her satellites in Europe.

In a report to Congress which may signal a new effort at easing United States-Russian tension, Weeks stressed that trade with Red China and North Korea is totally banned.

His quarterly report on export trade controls — which laid new emphasis on an old policy — came just after word leaked out that the Commerce Department is weighing an application from a U. S. exporter for permission to buy government-owned crop surpluses for resale to Russia and a Soviet satellite.

Dwayne Andreas, an official of Honeywell Co. at Mankato, Minn., a soybean milling firm, acknowledged he was the exporter. Andreas said in an interview he "came across an inquiry" a month ago for U. S. vegetable oil and butter.

Andreas' attorney, Milton S. Gould of New York City, said in an interview that:

1. Russia wants butter and Czechoslovakia wants cottonseed oil.

2. A Swiss firm Gould would not name advised Andreas of the potential market, indicating that as

Mrs. McNeill and Mr. Burke were appointed to fill the unexpired term of J. M. Duffie and Sid McMath who resigned.

India to Return Prisoners to Their Captors

By William C. Barnard

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Indian Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya announced today that India's custodial troops will return unrepatriated Korean War prisoners to their Allied and Communist captors' next Wednesday morning — nearly three days before their scheduled release as civilians.

In letters to the Red and Allied commands, Thimayya said India acting alone, would return the captives "as prisoners, not civilians" — "as the only correct and lawful" — "and peaceful course open."

Indian troops held in Korea's demilitarized zone more than 22,000 North Koreans and Chinese who were captured by the Allies and who have refused to return to their Red-ruled homelands, and 21 Americans, 1 Briton and 325 South Koreans who refused repatriation from Red captivity.

By John Randolph
PANMUNJOM (AP) — Allied and Communist liaison officers met today in an effort to get the stalled preliminary Korean peace talks going again, but they agreed only to try again tomorrow.

U. S. State Department official Kenneth Young said the meetings might continue "for a week or so."

The Communists proposed that the talks to set up a peace conference resume Saturday and flatly refused to discuss condition for reopening the discussion.

The Reds also turned down a U. N. suggestion that the liaison meetings be secret.

U. S. Envoy Arthur H. Dean broke off the preliminary talks Dec. 12 when the Communists accused the United States of conspiring with South Korea in the release of 27,000 anti-Communist Korean War prisoners.

Dean said he would return to the conference table only after the Communists withdrew their charge of perfidy.

Brother of Hope Woman Killed in Train-Auto Wreck

Texarkana — Robert Joe Sooter, 23, was killed last Wednesday when a pickup truck which he was driving skidded into the path of a west-bound Cotton Belt freight train, two miles west of Texarkana.

According to investigation the pickup driver had tried in vain to stop it. Sooter was pulled from the truck by two unidentified men as gasoline spurted over the wreckage. Shortly after the area was a mass of flames.

He was rushed to a Texarkana hospital but died enroute. Firemen from Texarkana put out the blaze.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Sooter of Texarkana, three sisters, Mrs. Edith Honeycutt of Hope, Mrs. Ruth Jones and Miss June Sooter of Texarkana, and a brother, J. W. Sooter of Texarkana.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at Spring Hill Baptist Church. Burial will be at Spring Hill.

Negro Pleads Guilty to Robbery, Gets Seven years

Hempstead Circuit Judge Lyle Brown sentenced Roscoe Polite, Negro, to seven years in the State Penitentiary yesterday following the defendant's plea of guilty to robbery.

Polite was charged with entering and robbing J. A. Hogue at the latter's grocery store near Yager school the night of January 9.

The court is in session today setting cases for trial next week. The regular January term opens Monday.

Ike Calls for Additional Social Security Benefits Group Favors Tax Cuts

Dividend Income Measure Aired by Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee today approved sharp cuts in personal income taxes on income from dividends. Experts said the revenue loss would be 240 million dollars the first year and up to one billion when the program takes full effect.

The proposed changes would apply to some four million persons who receive income from dividend. About one third of those would be relieved of any taxes at all on their dividend income.

This was the second major step announced in a complete overhaul of tax laws launched by the committee yesterday. The first agreement would provide 50 million dollars in tax savings for about 700,000 single heads of households.

Democrats were reported to have raised some opposition today to the program of relief for dividend recipients.

The proposed new law provides that individuals pay no income taxes on dividends up to $50 annually received in the taxable years ending from next July 31 to Aug. 1, 1955.

For taxable years ending after Aug. 1, 1955, individuals would pay no income taxes on dividends received up to $100.

In the first year, taxpayers would be allowed to deduct from their tax bill 15 per cent of their dividend income. This would be increased to 10 per cent the second year and 15 per cent the third year.

The deduction is from the actual tax payment the taxpayer would face under present law — not from his income to which tax rates are applied. This, in effect, a much larger percentage of dividend income would be free of taxes.

Arkansan Pilot of Plane in Which 16 Died

WARREN (AP) — Ira E. Broome, Jr., 33, pilot of the four-engine Philippines Airline plane that crashed today at Rome, killing all 18 persons aboard, was a native of Warren.

The plot joined Philippines Airlines about eight years ago, serving in Manila and Honolulu before becoming chief pilot at Rome.

Two Springfield, La. oilmen R. J. Montgomery and D. D. Davis are getting up a 800-acre block in Section 7-12, about five miles east of Patmos with the intention of drilling for oil as soon as the block is completed. . . . The leases are being given free and the location is near the old Jones Well which was drilled back in the 1920's.

Political talk, it seems, picks names out of a hat and many times a fellow not even interested in any race finds himself running for office. . . . according to rumors, that is. . . . so Mayor John L. Wilson said today: "Contrary to rumor I am not at this time, nor have I been, a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney. I was honored with a second term as Mayor without opposition and have two more years to serve in this office. This honor conferred upon me by the people of the City of Hope makes any thought that I might have of seeking another office while serving in my present capacity. . . . Okay Talbot, in your turn."

Word comes from Camden that Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Sutton are the proud parents of an eight pound one ounce baby girl, Rebecca June, born Wednesday. . . . the equally proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Newt Pentecost and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sutton. . . . guess Buddy will have to make a cheerleader out of her.

Jimmy Jones reports the schools will have to "put up with" another two years following re-election as superintendent by the school board earlier this week. . . . the Experiment Station reports a total of 48.78 inches of rainfall during 1953. Well below the average rainfall for Arkansas.

Farm Loans Available in Three Types

Three types of loans were listed yesterday by W. M. Sparks, County Supervisor. Farmers Home Administration as particular adapted to help farmers and stockmen meet their credit needs for feed, seed, livestock equipment and other operating expenses. He pointed out that the agency has other types of credit and services available for farmers whose needs cannot be adequately met by other lenders. The regular farm operating loans, the special livestock loans and disaster loans were listed by Mr. Sparks as the three types of loans best suited to the needs of the largest number of farmers in this county.

Through the operating loan program, farmers may borrow to buy feeds such as corn, hay, cottonseed meal and any other kind of available feed. Loans are made through the local county FFA office to farmers and stockmen whose proposed operations are on a sound basis. The funds supplement, but do not compete with, other local credit operating loans totaling $27,025 have been made for all purposes in this county since July 1.

Special livestock loans are available to buy feed and hay, obtain pasture facilities, replace livestock to normal levels, and to handle other needs brought about by drought conditions. These loans are restricted to established producers of cattle and are to help farmers carry on normal livestock production rather than for expansion of operation.

This county has been designated for production as well as economic disaster loans because of drought conditions that have caused production losses and unfavorable credit conditions which have made emergency credit necessary in many instances for continued farm operation.

Other types of loans, named by the Farmers Home Administration provide credit for buying and improving efficient farm and farm buildings.

Would Add 10 Million to List, Raise Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower proposed bringing 10 million more Americans under Social Security insurance, and raising $4,200 the amount of income subject to Social Security taxes, as Eisenhower would mean an immediate year tax increase for workers, but that much of more.

Employers' payroll taxes would be increased that amount each worker in the $4,200 bracket or above.

At present the first $3,000 income is taxed. The rate year went up to 2 per cent, been 1 1/2 per cent on worker's employer.

In a special message to Congress, Eisenhower said the plan would add 10 million to the list of those covered by Social Security.

Charles Kayoes Satterfield for Shot at Title

By CHARLE CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP) — A revitalized Ezzard Charles dropped a bomb on Bob Satterfield in Chicago. Satterfield last night to touch off a giant battle for a heavyweight title bout with Champion Rocky Marciano.

Satterfield, who gets a chance to become the first fighter in history to regain the heavyweight crown, pole-axed Satterfield in the first minute of the second round with one of the hardest left hooks he ever has thrown.

Satterfield, outwheeled 180 to 189 and a 7-2 underdog was set up for the mighty finishing blow by absorbing a right to the midsection. As he started to bend forward, Charles' pistonlike left caught him flush on the chin.

He went over backwards, and hit the canvas so hot resin dust flew. He lay lifelessly until Red-Reggie Frank Gilmer tolled out seven. Then he raised his head feebly, but he couldn't get up, and he took the full count flat on his back.

Thirty minutes later, he was still dazed and unable to remember clearly what happened. The fight was scheduled for 10 rounds. A national television audience, and 4,921 ringside customers who can't be counted, to a net gate of $13,949.24, saw one of the cleanest, and most brutal, knockouts in years.

Baseball Deal Pleasing to Traders
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Owner Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies and General Manager Branch Rickey of the Pittsburgh Pirates both had that "cat-throat-the-carnary" look today: Carpenter because he separated Rickey from his prize pitcher; Rickey because he separated Carpenter from $80,000 in much-needed cash plus two utility players.

The deal completed yesterday sent Pirates' right-hander Murrey Dickson to the Phillies for infielder Jack Lohrke, pitcher Andy Hansen and the $80,000.

Carpenter promptly declared that the addition of the 37-year-old Dickson gave the Phillies the top pitching staff in the National League. Rickey, whose recent request for more working capital was turned down by club executives, reported that he was pleased with the deal.

The Phillies have been after Dickson ever since the 1951 season when he won 20 games for the Pirates, who also finished eight that year.

Carpenter envisioned his 1954 pitching squad consisting of 10 players: Robin Roberts, Curt Simmons, Dickson, Bob Miller, Thornton Klipper, Jim Konstanty, Steve Ritzik, Johnny Lindell, Karl Drews, and bonus rookie Tommy Qualters.

The Phillies' president said that Dickson, despite his relatively advanced years, should have at least two good years.

"Dickson pitches with an easy motion that doesn't take much out of his arm," a club spokesman said. "If he can win 10 games for the Pirates his 1953 record he certainly should do as well or much better with our defense behind him."

Dickson, commenting on the trade at his Leavenworth, Kan., home, agreed.

Patmos Independent bops basketball team will play the Spring Hill Independents Thursday night in the Patmos gymnasium. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Independent Teams Split Doubleheader

The Cale Independents Girls defeated the Hope Independents Girls 20-17 in an overtime game last night. The game was tied 17 all at the end of the regular game. Thornton led Hope in scoring with 8 points.

In the boys game, Hope defeated HSTC Independents 80 to 54. Billy Mitchell with 22 points led the locals, while Donn with 23 led the visitors.

Both games were played in the local gym.

Braves Set New Record at Milwaukee

NEW YORK (AP) — The Milwaukee success story, how the Braves shifted from Boston, finished second in the National League pennant race and set a new league attendance record was voted the 1953 today in the 23rd annual year-end Associated Press poll.

All baseball watched with interest the first shift of a major league franchise in 50 years when owner Lou Perini moved his Boston club to Milwaukee.

In 1952, the Braves finished seventh in the standings, and drew only 281,278 through the turnstiles at Boston. With a scrappy club managed by Charlie Grimm, and with Milwaukee backing the team to the limit, the Boston attendance figures had been broken by May 20.

At the end of the season, 1,286,397 fans had seen the Braves who were a threat to the Brooklyn Dodgers' pennant aspirations right up to the final month of the season.

The story of Milwaukee and the Braves was the sports surprise of 1953 on 42 of the 124 ballots cast by the nation's sports writers and sportscasters, and on the 3-2-1 basis, received 149 points.

The second surprise was the exit of Manager Chuck Dressen, who piloted the Dodgers to straight pennants in 1952 and 1953. Dressen quit suddenly after Brooklyn was beaten in the World Series by the Yankees because his demand for a 3-year contract was rejected. The Dodgers offered him only a one-year pact. This received 23 first place votes, and 91 points.

Third biggest surprise was the end of the college football two-platoon system which killed off the free substitution rule. This got 12 first place votes and 44 votes.

Other sports surprises were the Kentucky Derby defeat of Native Dancer by Dark Star, Purdue's football victory over Michigan State, the Illinois football team's excellent showing when the sophomore came through, Rocky Marciano's one-round knockout of Jersey Joe Walcott, the Maryland

One-Platoon Favored, Sucker Shift Is Out

By BE FUNK
SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — College football must keep its one-platoon system and must get rid of such practices as the faked injury and the sucker shift.

This verdict was handed down yesterday by the Football Rules Committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The committee turned down all efforts to liberalize the limited substitution rule which went into effect last season and proved immensely popular with football fans.

The most surprising development of the meeting was the strong condemnation of such "nonethical" practices as injury faking to stop the clock and false starts intended to pull the opposition offside.

In what appeared to be mainly a slap at Notre Dame, the committee unanimously approved a resolution declaring that injury faking is "dishonest, unsportsmanlike and contrary to the rules."

Notre Dame players were accused last season of feigning injuries in the low game to stop the clock and gain time for touchdowns in the closing seconds of each half. These scores enabled the Irish to escape with a 14-14 tie.

During the 1952 season Notre Dame figured most prominently in several sucker shift incidents. Last season, there were reports of such incidents in the Southeastern and Missouri Valley conferences.

The Rules Committee said that, for the present, it would "rely on the integrity of the coaches and players rather than upon further legislation" to wipe out these unethical producers.

If this doesn't succeed, Committee Chairman H. L. (Fritz) Crisler of the University of Michigan said, the rule book will be rewritten. Committee Secretary E. E. Wilman of the University of Denver said minor revisions may be made in the substitution rule in the future, but "two-platoon football is dead as a duck."

Contract Worries Plaque Owners

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP) — Major league baseball club owners were in anything but a happy frame of mind today as they scanned the headlines looking for new holdouts and starwondering just what their own stars would do with the contracts they were offered.

Bob Carpenter of the Philadelphia Phillies and Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators already were having their troubles and contracts had been in the mails only a few days. Some clubs hadn't even sent theirs out.

Carpenter had a fourth unsigned contract — this one from Curt Simmons, his ace left-hander — on his desk.

Football team being voted No. 1 team of 1953, the flop of the New York Giants who skidded of fifth place, and the showing of the Iowa football team, especially its tie

Henderson Cancels Games With Ouachita

ARKADELPHIA (AP) — Henderson State Teachers College announced yesterday it had cancelled two scheduled basketball games with its cross-town rival, Ouachita Baptist College, as a result of a recurrence of paint-daubing expeditions onto both campuses.

Statues and other ornaments on grounds of the rival schools — including Ouachita's emblematic tiger — have been touched up by nocturnal volunteers in recent weeks.

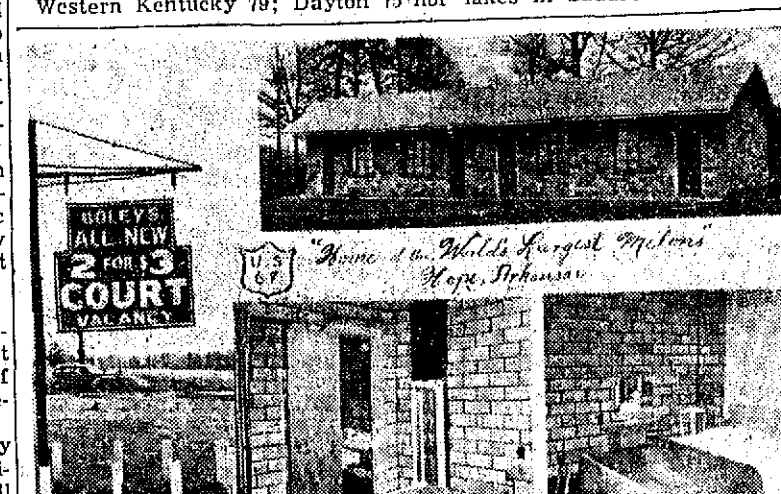

It said it had cancelled the basketball games "with regret" but felt it acted "in the interest of more wholesome relations" between the two schools.

Ouachita spokesman said they too regretted the painting incidents, but favored the basketball games being played.

Woman Who Killed Children Is Insane

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — Mrs. Velma Lorene Swafford, who is accused of killing her two small children with injections of poison has been adjudged insane and will be committed indefinitely to the State hospital at Little Rock instead of being tried here for murder.

This was announced yesterday by Prosecuting Attorney H. A. Tucker.

Tucker said State Hospital physicians found that Mrs. Swafford, a 30-year-old registered nurse, was sane at the time of the children's deaths on Nov. 10 and still is sane.

Tucker said Mrs. Swafford related she pumped a deadly narcotic into the bloodstreams of her son Michael 8 and his sister Donna Ruth, 2.

She was quoted as saying she killed the children and had planned to kill herself because her husband had deserted her and because she believed the boy was suffering from an incurable disease.

The children were dead and Mrs. Swafford was unconscious when her locked apartment here was forced open.

She had taken an overdose of sleeping pills, from which she recovered.

Mrs. Swafford was sent to State hospital on Nov. 18 for a 30-day mental examination by order of Circuit Judge C. Floyd Huff. The examination period later was extended at request of the hospital staff.

Until the end of the 17th Century poor people in England were buried without coffins, wrapped in cloth or even merely covered with hay and flowers.

gress the President said the average benefit payment to retired workers is now 30 a month, with a minimum of $25 and a maximum of $83.

For social security to "fulfill its purpose of helping to combat destitution, these benefits are too low," Eisenhower said.

Both the maximum and minimum should be increased he said but proposed no figures. A formula on that will be presented later by Secretary of Welfare Hobby, he told legislators.

The President set forth a six-point program for "improvement" of the social security system.

1. Expansion of insurance protection to about ten million more people not presently covered — including self employed farmers; many more farm workers and domestic workers; doctors, dentists, lawyers, architects, accountants, and other self employed professional people; members of state and local retirement systems and clergymen, on a voluntary basis; and several smaller groups.

2. Liberalization of the present "retirement test" to permit retired workers to earn more at regular parttime jobs without disqualifying themselves for social security benefits.

At present, a man or woman over 65 years of age, and under 75, cannot draw social security payments if earnings are more than 75¢ a month. Similarly, a widow of an insured worker loses her payment if she takes a job and earns more than $75 a month.

U. S. Taking Less From Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Internal Revenue Director Olin S. Godwin says federal tax collections in Arkansas last year were more than a million dollars less than in 1953. Godwin said collections in 1953 totaled 158,962,993, as compared with the $160,297,852 collected the previous year.

Godwin said corporation income taxes declined more than six million dollars, from $39,705,737 to $33,582,935.

Personal income tax collections dropped from 55,600,506 in 1952 to 53,254,458 in 1953.

Godwin said most every other category of federal revenue also showed declines, but he attributed the reductions mostly to a general decrease in business.

of the social security tax — that is levying on the first $4,200 of income.

5. Computation of benefits "on a fairer basis." The President said the level of old age benefits now is related to an average of a worker's past earnings, and that under the present law terms of abnormally low earnings or none at all, are averaged in with periods of normal earnings, "thereby reducing the benefits received by the retired worker." He recommended a new formula to recomputation of benefits to provide what he called a "fairer return."

Dayton Has Lost Role of Giant Killer

By BEN PHEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Dayton basketball team probably will have to give up its lease on the title of "giant killers" after what happened last night.

The Ohio Flyers blew a six-point lead in 80 seconds and bowed to Western Kentucky 79-75 in a triple overtime battle. The victory was No. 15 for Western, longest unbeaten streak in the nation.

Just a year ago Dayton wrecked Seton Hall's string of 27 triumphs, longest ever compiled by a major college in a single season.

The Flyers led the fifth-ranking Hilltoppers until the final three minutes of regulation time. In the first overtime they built a 64-58 advantage with 80 seconds to play. But Western fought back and tied the score on Jack Sallee's driving jump shot with two seconds left.

Tom Marshall collected a field goal and two foul shots early in the third overtime and the Flyers never again caught up.

Oklahoma City University, No. 8, whipped Houston 70-62 in the only other action involving ranking teams. Arnold Short scored 18 points in the first quarter and ended the night with 41 for the Oklahomaans.

Bradley, coming fast after three early season setbacks, scored a surprisingly easy 76-59 decision over St. Louis for its eighth straight triumph.

Both the Navy and the Army won. The Middles beat Rutgers 75-61 after trailing at halftime and points.

The Cadets outclassed Swarthmore 74-71 with Bill Hannon scoring 31 Syracuse, the only team to beat Cornell this season, did it for the second time, 71-69, on a 20-foot set shot by Mel Besdin with six seconds to play.

Penn State defeated West Virginia 74-66 with a rally in the last five minutes after the lead had changed hands 10 times.

Bob Schafer, one of the country's most prolific scorers, collected 37 points as Villanova breezed past Kings College of Pennsylvania.

Golden Circle Narrows Down to Only One

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Whatever happened to the Golden Circle? A couple of years ago, Paramount put forth a big hoopla about a dozen or so young hopefuls who were supposedly destined for stardom. The campaign was designed to duplicate a previous Golden Circle, which fostered such names as Susan Hayward, William Holden, Ellen Drew and Patricia Morrison.

Today only one of the most recent Golden Circle remains at Paramount—Joan Taylor. Another, Mary Murphy, had a lead in a Marlon Brando picture. But only Barbara Rush appears to be working regularly in movies. One of the circle alumni was recently reported working in a gas station.

Barbara Rush's fortunes are prospering at Universal-International. She has been doing leads, her latest being opposite Rock Hudson in "Taza, Son of Cochise." I had lunch with her and she told me why the circle proved to be something less than golden:

"It was doomed from the start. As a matter of fact, I don't think it was such a good idea. They spent a lot of money promoting the circle as an institution, even took all of us to New York and around the country."

"But it was sold as an institution. Everybody had heard of the Golden Circle, but nobody could tell you who was in it."

"Besides, it isn't practical for a studio like Paramount. The studio builds very few players from scratch, as they were trying to do with us. Whatever new people they push usually have already built their reputations in other fields. Like Rosemary Clooney from records, Audrey Hepburn from the stage or Joanne Gilbert from night clubs."

"The really unknown player never has a chance. We saw that when we were trying to get good roles. Every time a good one would come along, the bosses would try to borrow Elizabeth Taylor."

"Paramount isn't geared for developing new people. It makes so few pictures on its own; mostly they are made by outside producers like Hal Wallis, Perleberg-Season or Pine-Thomas. They want the protection of a star name, and that's understandable. The only studio that can build new stars are places like MGM or U-I, where bosses like Dore Schary or Edward Muhl can tell producers that they have to use contract players."

Officer Tells of Torture He Endured

NEW YORK (UP) — Suppose a smiling North Korean Communist walked up to you, a bound prisoner of war, took a pair of pliers and rolled back your fingernails one by one, like sardine can tops? Would you tell him what he wanted to know?

David F. MacGhee, a red-haired, blue-eyed, boyish-looking air force major, endured this — and worse — torture over and over without cracking.

And he thinks he knows why.

"I never gave up hope and faith in the United States and our way of life," he said.

MacGhee, 34, an air force veteran of WORLD WAR II was born in New York and brought up in Moorestown, N.J. He was a prisoner of the North Koreans and Chinese for three years after being shot down on a bombing mission across the Yalu.

He knew plenty. He had been attached to the Pentagon before going to the Korean war. But he made up a story about being a drunk who was kept in the air force by having a rich wife. He stuck to it.

He was beaten and knocked out so many times it became almost a habit. Torture became a way of life. Here's a sample: MacGhee and two fellow prisoners escaped in 1951. Caught just 15 miles from the American lines, they were taken back to the infamous "Pal's Palace," a camp named for its proprietor, a Major Pak.

The Communists wanted to know who helped them escape.

"From May 11 to May 17," MacGhee said, "they beat me with everything — pieces of wood, belts open hand, fists, feet. Once as I sat next to a post they kicked my head against it with their boots in a fast tempo so that it bounced like a punching bag."

On the morning of May 17, four guards had breakfast and then began to work on him. They rolled up his fingernails with pliers and left them hanging. MacGhee fainted. He was tied up, hands, feet, elbows.

When he came to, he found himself spread-eagled. With cigarettes, they burned a dotted trail up one leg, across his groin, down the other leg. All the while they demanded information. Failing to get it, they turned to his genitals with the pliers.

"They would squeeze — and band, I'd pass out. Squeeze, bang, out. Over and over. Then, about 4 p. m., they threw me in a hole in the ground with the two others who had escaped with me. We stayed there 26 days."

"The hole was seven feet across, and about five feet high with beams on the top so we couldn't stand up. And we couldn't get out. We all got dysentery in two or three days. A little sunlight came in at a certain time of day, and I would stand in it and pick off lice and scabs from the infections of my cigarette burns."

MacGhee got out of Walter Reed hospital last month. In New York with his wife Betty for a visit this week, he finally had some good luck. He hit the jackpot for $1500 on the "Break the Bank" radio program.

The most impressive thing to him has been finding that Americans are at last asking what communism is all about. When they ask what he learned about it he replies "It's the most deceitful way of life ever imposed on ignorant and poverty-ridden people — a way in which the stool-pigeon becomes the most acceptable member of society."

CLAIM RECORD

ST. REMY, France, (UP) — Two French women claimed a new Hollywood screen personalities today.

Jacqueline Mahe, 28, and Mariette Gargano, 28, climbed stiffly from the cramped cabin of their two-place glider last night after remaining aloft 38 hours and 51 minutes. Their mark beats by 10 hours the old world's record for two-place glider flight by women.

Federal Prisoner Is Indicted

FORT SMITH (UP) — Howard Ballard Jackson, 29, who slipped away from a deputy U. S. Marshal while being taken to prison last year, was indicted yesterday for the escape.

The "true bill" against Jackson, now in a federal reformatory near Texarkana, was one of 29 returned by U. S. Grand Jury.

Jackson was being escorted to the reformatory when he escaped on Sept. 22 through a window of a men's room at a Lockesburg service station while the deputy marshal waited outside.

Jackson was recaptured the next day at Dierks. He is serving a two-year sentence for interstate car theft at the reformatory.

Twelve of the 29 indictments were not made public, pending arrest of defendants. Nine of the others were for violation of liquor laws.

FBI's Wanted List Proves Successful

By JAMES F. DONOVAN
WASHINGTON, (UP) — The FBI disclosed today that 1953 was the most successful so far for its four-year-old program of tracking down its list of "10 most wanted" fugitives.

Its figures disclosed that during the year, 28 fugitives—an average of one every two weeks—were taken into custody or otherwise located. It said that his was "more than doubling the rate of the previous three years."

The FBI credited 13 of the 1953 arrests to alert citizens who recognized the picture of the fugitive and tipped off the FBI or the police.

"This technique has developed into a swift and potent weapon against the hardened criminal," the FBI said in a review of the 1953 program.

Some arrests have come amazingly fast after the fugitive was placed on the "wanted" list. For example, Joseph J. Brletic, a fugitive for more than four years, was picked up in California again on a tip from a citizen less than 24 hours after his addition to the list was publicized.

The FBI credited this arrest to an alert citizen who had seen Davenport's picture in a newspaper.

The practice of publicizing a list of "10 most wanted fugitives" was inaugurated by the United Press in early 1949. The following year the FBI decided to make it a permanent part of its crime-busting program.

In all there have been a total of 66 men wanted for a variety of crime, on the list since March, 1950. Of these, the FBI said, 56 have been arrested and one was found dead. It attributed 26 arrests directly to the publicity given of the program by newspapers, magazines and other news media.

Davenport's replacement on the list was expected to be announced in the near future to round out the current list of 10.

Of the 10 fugitives on the original list of March, 1950, only one remains at large. He is Henry Randolph Mitchell, who is wanted for the robbery of a Williston, Fla., bank on Jan. 21, 1948.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

IN THE dining room, Andrea lifted her shining morning face over the newspaper wall of the paper. "Hello!" she said cheerfully. "Did I snore?"

Dale shook her head and laughed. "You should sue Phil for slander!"

"I had nightmares," Andrea scowled. "I dreamed that only you and Phil were in Carnegie Hall for my concert."

"What happened to Don and me?" Aggie asked mildly, lifting the coffee pot.

"How should I know? And every note bounced back at me like a hailstone from those empty balconies! I feel all battered and bruised."

"All those waffles before you went to bed," Agatha murmured in an I-told-you-so tone. "I warned you!"

"Darling, I've drooled over Sarah's waffles halfway around the world! Besides, I only ate six."

"He bogey of regaling those fifty dieted-off pounds was in Aggie's regretful, 'I don't know how you do it, and keep that twenty-inch waistline.'"

Andrea laughed and turned to Dale. "Can I drop you somewhere? I've rented a car."

"I'm going to Stephanie's," Dale said.

"The beauty factory?"

"Not for a mud pack," Agatha explained to her niece. "Dale is going to take over Stephanie's books."

Andrea's eyes narrowed thoughtfully. "I shouldn't think it would be necessary for you to work. Or did Kelly squander his father's fortune?"

Dale said evenly, "People work for reasons other than money, you do."

"But columns of figures—ugh!"

"One man's poison," said Agatha, in a tone of gentle reproof.

"Unbelievable as it may seem to you, Andrea, I would go out of my mind doing double octaves by the hundred thousand."

"So would I on your piano!" laughed Andrea. "It's disgracefully out of tune, Auntie." She picked up a leather portfolio bulging with music, kissed Aggie's cheek, and produced car keys on a ring.

"Ready, Dale?"

The sun already portended a broiling day, glimmering on the solid phalanx of steel and chrome along Park Avenue. It made Dale's eyes ache, but Andrea wheeled her way expertly in the flow of traffic.

"How," she asked Dale curiously, as they waited for a light to change, "did you happen to pick Stephanie's?"

"Aggie did."

"I'd rather work for a man," said Andrea positively. "Power goes to female heads."

"I tried working for a man," Dale said dryly.

Andrea gave her a cocked-brow glance, and changed gears. A car cut in, and she wrenched the wheel, honked her horn, and swore madly in Spanish at a near-brush of fenders. A taxi driver grinned, Dale drew in her breath sharply, and after a moment, Andrea said, "You think that's close! You should drive a car in Mexico City! In self-defense, I learned a mouthful of Spanish profanity. Don't ask me to translate it!"

"I left my car at home," Dale said. "Grandy thought it wise."

"You quote him like a second Daniel, don't you? Even in this short time, I've noticed."

Dale looked surprised. "Do I?"

"Grandy thinks, Grandy says, Grandy feels," Andrea shrugged. "Well, my theme used to be, 'Aggie says—until I decided to know myself, a la Plato.'"

Dale shrugged doubtfully. "Who does, actually?"

"I do."

"You know what you're striving to make of yourself?"

"Isn't it the same thing?" Andrea drew off the Avenue onto a side street. "Here we are, Employs' entrance, right? Good luck, Dale."

She drove off, leaving Dale standing on the sidewalk. No, it was not the same thing, or she would not be going through this door, riding this hot little box of an elevator up to an office where thick ledgers of red and black figures awaited her. She would be, instead—But what did she want to make of herself? One of the wise-cracking career girls that Roz Russell portrayed in the movies? Another Rambova, with an annual floral offering on a grave?

She got off at the third floor, and had given her name to the receptionist, before she realized that she did not know her employer's full name. Stephanie what?

The girl was nodding at her in a friendly fashion. "Stephanie's late this morning. Sit down, will you? She won't be long."

"Would you mind telling me her—Stephanie's—surname?"

"Martin, but call her Stephanie. Everyone does." She saw Dale's expression, and smiled. "It's just like Ma'am. Or," her smile became a grin, "Mac. Don't worry, you'll get used to it."

Dale had formed a mental image of a woman embodying all the much-advertised glamour of her father's world.

mous salon; it was rather disconcerting, a quarter of an hour later, to learn from the receptionist's signal that the plain, thin woman in her middle fifties coming from the elevator was Stephanie.

Dale rose, introduced herself, and put her hand into the square, firm one-cushion, lipstick, following the natural line of her mouth, was Stephanie's only make-up. Her eyebrows had not been tweezed out and painted in, and her short gray hair looked as if she cut it herself.

"Sorry to have kept you waiting, Dale," she said, leading the way into her office. "How is Aggie?"

"Very well."

"I needn't have asked. She's the healthiest female I know, barring myself."

"It was kind of her to arrange this for me."

"Most people don't recognize Aggie's kindness," Stephanie said. "She hides it so well under that Bolshevik dictatorship of hers!"

Dale faltered, "But she didn't—"

"Hold a bludgeon over me?" Stephanie shook her head. "No. I didn't invent a job for you just to oblige an old friend. In fact, you're a god-send. I don't enjoy interviewing applicants from the Agency. They all expect me to look like Ave Gardner."

Dale felt herself flushing, and Stephanie smiled.

"I'm a dismal advertisement for my products! But after the half-century milestone, you can't paint youth back on. You can't cream it in with hormones, or girdle it in with rubber." Her smile was questioning. "Do you think I'm a hypocrite, selling wares I don't believe in for myself?"

So strong a word had not occurred to Dale, but—"It does seem paradoxical," she admitted.

Stephanie smiled indulgently. "There's a definite therapeutic value in a facial. And a new cologne can be as curative in some maladies as the surgeon's knife—and infinitely less painful! What's wrong with selling glamour, if it gives a woman a brighter outlook on life, and renewed courage for all the humdrum problems?"

Respect kindled in Dale as she studied the woman on the other side of the desk. The facial lines sloped upward, grooving the contours with serenity. The mouth was not beautiful by usual standards, but it was shaped to the habit of tolerance and compassion. The eyes, intimate with sadness, were unshadowed by it. Dale thought, Here's a woman who knew where she was going, and got there. Maybe Andrea was right...

Film Stars Going in for Livestock

BISMARCK, N. D., (UP) — Four Hollywood screen personalities have filed cattle brands here, State Brand Recorder Irvin Smith reported yesterday.

Smith said he registered brands for actress Rosalind Russell, actor Gregory Peck and movie Producer Jules Stein and his wife, Doris Jane Stein.

Miss Russell's brand is an "X" Lazy R up connected. Peck has a "G P Slash." Stein has a "Reverse S slash" and Mrs. Stein a "diamond over D" brand.

Smith said he was contacted by the Oppenheimer Industries, Inc., of Kansas City, Mo., which said it was representing six persons interested in registering brands in the state.

The South Dakota board also reported Miss Russell and Peck registered brands in that state, and a group of movie stars including Miss Russell, Peck, Gene Kelly, Jack Benny and the Steins have registered brands in Nebraska.

It was not learned whether the group actually intends to run cattle in the three states and Oppenheimer has refused comment.

Two Deaths Bring Total to Eight

By The Associated Press

A young woman died in a house fire last night and an Oklahoma City salesman was killed in a traffic accident earlier yesterday to bring to eight the Arkansas violent death toll since Sunday mid night.

Miss Maxine Morgan, 26, died when fire destroyed her house at Trumbull. Cause of the fire was not determined. Her husband, William Morgan, is a Marine stationed at the Millington Tenn. Naval Base.

Leroy M. Vanderburgh, Oklahoma City, was killed when his automobile was involved in a collision on Highway 64 Bridge at Ozark.

Mrs. Morgan's death was fourth from fires within two weeks. Mrs. Emma Della Williamson, of near Lake Village, was killed fatally Monday when flames from a wood stove set fire to her clothes. Two-year-old Harold, Williamson son of a Camp Chaffee, died Monday night when flames destroyed the house where the family lived near the camp. Yesterday, Richard, 12, son of a two-year-old Harold, was killed in a fire in North Little Rock.

Would you trade a Penny for a Dollar?

You can if you use Natural Chilean Nitrate of Soda for your top-dressing and side-dressing needs. It costs a little more because it's worth more. But the difference in cost usually can be measured in pennies per acre, while the difference in value often amounts to dollars per acre.

Chilean "Bulldog" Soda gives you generous extra value. The nitrogen is 100 per cent nitrate. It's 100 per cent available (quick-acting); 100 per cent dependable. The mirror elements make crops stronger, healthier. The sodium—26 pounds in every 100-pound sack—is a key to maximum returns on your entire fertilizer investment. It offsets the bad effects of acid-forming fertilizers... increases the efficiency of mixed fertilizers containing them. It releases "locked-up" potash in the soil... increases the availability and efficiency of soil phosphate... reduces potash, calcium and magnesium losses by leaching... develops larger, deeper root systems.

Sodium builds up the productivity of your land—more each year. It's an essential element for some crops... beneficial to most and necessary for maximum yields of many.

Pennies-per-acre difference in cost may mean dollars-per-acre difference in value to you. Chilean "Bulldog" Soda is the best fertilizer your money can buy. Use it for all of your top-dressing and side-dressing needs.

Committee Says on Cotton Acres

LONDON BROWN

Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON (AP) — It's now up to the Senate conference committee to work out a compromise bill fixing the maximum acreage that cotton growers can plant this year.

Senate late yesterday approved the bill which would fix the cotton acreage allotment at 4,000,000 acres — four million less than the figure set by the Agriculture Department.

The House passed a bill fixing the figure at 22½ million. The two bills differ in other respects so the committee must work out a measure acceptable to both branches.

Senate approved the bill affecting southern and western states, discussing its effects on their cotton areas. Both groups said they weren't exactly to their liking.

The House and Senate can't agree on a bill, the national allotment would remain at 17,000,000 acres — the figure set by the Agriculture Department when he called for production limits in 1954 because of the big surplus.

However, recommended the House raise the total to 21 million acres to cushion the blow that would be imposed by the smaller allotment. He said the figure would be reached by law to reach 21 million.

The House bill contains a provision which southerners said they would like. It would give cotton planters a right of allocating the county acreage either on the basis of plantings or on the basis of land.

Under this factor, an individual can plant no more than one-third of the total cotton land in the county.

The House bill also contains a provision which southerners said they would like. It would give cotton planters a right of allocating the county acreage either on the basis of plantings or on the basis of land.

Cat Scratch Fever Case at Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP) — The first case of "cat-scratch fever" ever positively diagnosed in Memphis was reported yesterday.

There have been only 117 other known cases in the world since medical literature began reporting the disease in 1950, a physician said. Twenty-one of these were in the United States.

The physician said there is "no known effective treatment."

"Cat-scratch fever is a self-limiting disease, running its course like measles and mumps. No one dies from it. While not serious it can be severe enough to incapacitate a patient for several weeks."

"One individual can't transmit the disease to another individual but a cat can. The cat himself does not have to be sick."

The majority of cases that have come to medical attention have been due to the scratch occurs the cat.

When contamination occurs, the scratch more or less heals and often goes unnoticed a week or 10 days later, the area of the scratch becomes reactivated.

Victim of the disease was Jane Taylor, 12. She is recovering but spent several days in Children's Hospital and had fluctuating, unabated fever for five weeks.

Demos Ask Broad S. S. Benefits

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sixty-two Democratic members of the House joined today in urging Congress to broaden social security covering and increase benefits.

The Democrats also proposed that the two per cent old age insurance tax be levied on the first $4,800 of income, instead of on the first $3,600 as at present.

They noted that President Eisenhower, in his state of the union message to Congress last week, recommended revision and improvement of the social security program. The President plans to send a special message to Congress Thursday dealing with social security.

The Democrats said in a statement they were "pleased to note" that Mr. Eisenhower wants to improve social security. They suggested five changes as a "minimum program."

Dulles Rejects Deal for World Division

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles will meet the Russians in Berlin soon, firmly pledged against any deal to divide the world between the rule of Moscow and that of the Western Powers. There is no plan for a "partnership division of world power" with those who suppress freedom, the secretary said last night in an address to the Council of Foreign Relations here.

Reviewing Eisenhower administration work in foreign and security affairs during his first year and taking a quick look at the future, Dulles made these basic points:

Future diplomacy — The United States, Britain and France will negotiate at Berlin for the unification of Germany and the liberation of Austria. The aim is to "advance the cause of human welfare."

The way to a cold war victory — If the free nations devote themselves to promoting freedom they will effectively demonstrate its advantages to people behind the Iron Curtain, thus offering "our greatest hope" for solution of the Soviet problem. Dulles said there is now, even within Russia, a test of strength between the people and "the powerful rulers."

Dean Suggests Better Training

COLUMBUS, Ga., (UP) — Maj. Gen. William Dean, a prisoner of the Communists for three years, suggests that better home and school training would prevent in the future cases such as those of American soldiers who have refused to come home from Korea.

Dean said in a speech last night that he has "utmost sympathy" for the 21 soldiers who have refused repatriation.

"You will find that not one of them had any advantages in this country," Dean said.

He said that as a former prisoner of the Reds, "I know the pressure they (the Americans) were under and the persuasion that was used."

To counteract "this type of Communist victory," Dean suggested that American principles be taught in the homes and schools to future soldiers before they enter military service.

British Want Surplus Meat

LONDON (AP) Rationed Britain is dicker with the United States for the purchase of surplus meat to help fill pinched kitchen larders, the Treasury said today.

A spokesman said the meat would be imported "in excess of our normal buying and won't displace our regular suppliers."

At present, this country gets most of her meat from Argentina and the Commonwealth countries, especially Australia.

The Treasury spokesman told newsmen the American meat would really be a "gift working this way."

"It would come to us under the Mutual Security Act. Payments would be made in sterling. But the sterling would be returnable for use in connection with our defense effort."

Meat is still rationed in Britain at two shillings two pence 30 cents or about two chops per person weekly. But the government hopes to end rationing next summer.

With its trend-setting advances . . . Ford's worth even more for '54

STYLE DIVIDEND

3 New Body Styles . . . 28 models

Ford offers you three brand new body styles in its line of newly created models. There's a new transparent-roofed Crestline Skyliner . . . a sparkling new Crestline Fordor . . . and a smart new Customline Ranch Wagon. There are 28 models in all, for each of Ford's 14 body styles is available with the new V-8 or the new I-block Six engine.

New Astra-Dial Control Panel

It's designed both for beauty and practicality. The speedometer is placed high on the panel where you can quickly spot the figures almost without taking your eyes off the road. Like the '54 Ford's beautiful new upholstery and trim, the Astra-Dial Control Panel is color-harmonized with the sparkling new outside body color of your choice.

It's the Dividends that make it Worth More

RIDE DIVIDEND

New Ball-Joint Front Suspension

This revolutionary new suspension is the greatest chassis advance in 20 years . . . and it's exclusive to Ford in its field. It gives front wheels greater up and down travel to smooth out the going on rough roads. And it helps keep the wheels in true alignment for consistently easy handling. Movement of the wheels is on ball joints whether in up and down motion, as wheels travel over rough spots, or in steering motion as wheels turn right or left. Ball joints are sealed against dirt and water. Lubrication points are cut from sixteen to four.

DIVIDEND IN DRIVING EASE

Ford offers five optional power assists* you might expect to find only in America's costliest cars

Master-Guide power steering does up to 75% of your steering work, yet leaves you with natural steering "feel" on the straightaways. Swift Sure Power Brakes do up to one-third of the work in stopping. Fordomatic Drive gives torque converter smoothness and the "Go" of automatic mechanical gears. And only Ford in its field offers Power-Lift Windows, both front and rear, that open or close at a button's touch . . . and a 4-Way Power Seat that adjusts up and down, as well as front and back, at a touch of the controls. They're all worthwhile optional extras available in the 1954 Ford!

*At extra cost.

PERFORMANCE DIVIDEND

New 130-h.p. Y-BLOCK V-8

The Y-block V-8 has an extra-deep skirt extending below the crankshaft to give greater rigidity for smoother, quieter operation, longer engine life.

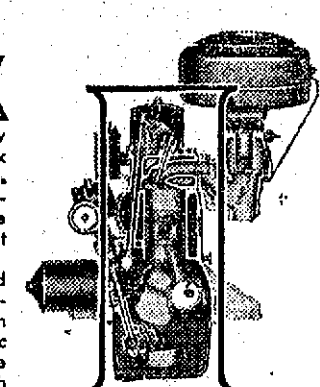

Free-turning overhead valves, Double-Deck Intake Manifold and high-turbulence combustion chambers give brilliant new responsiveness. These, plus low-friction design and Automatic Power Pilot give you 18% more power, greater economy.

New 115-h.p. I-BLOCK SIX

Like the new V-8, this new Six has an extra-deep block for greater rigidity . . . smoother, quieter performance . . . and longer engine life. It's the industry's most modern Six.

Free-turning overhead valves, high-turbulence combustion chambers, low-friction design and Ford's Automatic Power Pilot help produce 14% more power—with finer performance on even less gas.

No car in the low-price field has ever offered so many "Worth More" features as the '54 Ford. In addition to all the features that have already established Ford as the "Worth More" car, you now get a host of brand new dividends. These include a choice of two new deep-block engines . . . the most modern engines in the industry. You also get Ford's new Ball-Joint Front Suspension . . . beautiful new interiors . . . and styling that will make your heart beat faster.

And, remember, Ford also makes available to you all the optional power assists . . . features you might expect to find only in the costliest cars.

If you have not yet seen the new Ford models for 1954, come in and inspect them today. Then Test Drive a '54 Ford . . . and once you do, you'll want to drive it home!
